Letter of Recommendation

I am delighted to pen this letter of recommendation for Haroon Azhar, a talented high school senior from Raffles World Academy, Dubai, United Arab Emirates at Live Admins, (Doing Business as Live Greeter in Pakistan)

Haroon has successfully completed a Three-month internship from 1st July 2023 to 31st September 2023 within the IT department at Livegreeter, an innovative company based in Dubai.

During his internship, Haroon Azhar played a pivotal role as an IT Intern, contributing significantly to the development of a chatbot and providing valuable assistance to the core team in the realm of Artificial Intelligence for data modeling and research. His technical acumen and problem-solving skills were instrumental in advancing the team's projects.

Haroon Azhar demonstrated an adept understanding of IT principles and applied various techniques in developing the chatbot, showcasing creativity and attention to detail. His adaptability to new concepts and technologies was evident, delivering high-quality results with a specific focus on enhancing the capabilities of the IT department.

Beyond his technical contributions, Haroon exhibited excellent communication skills, collaborating seamlessly with the IT team and effectively engaging in the collaborative effort towards the development and implementation of cutting-edge solutions.

On a personal level, Haroon demonstrated discipline, amiable personality, and consistently surpassed the internship requirements by investing additional effort throughout his tenure. His resilience, perseverance, and leadership qualities were commendable, highlighting a steadfast commitment to achieving results.

Haroon Azhar is undoubtedly an outstanding candidate, and I have complete confidence in his ability to bring substantial value to any IT team. I wholeheartedly recommend Haroon for any IT-related position.

Should you require further information about him, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time
